SPRING IS IN THE AIR AT ANGSANA RESORTS

Bask in exotic sunshine this Easter in the Indian Ocean or South-East Asia

Singapore, February 2016 – Dedicated to those looking forward to longer days and warmer nights, Angsana, a captivating collection of resorts in exotic, sunshine-filled destinations, have the perfect antidote to winter - a long Easter or Spring break surrounded by crystal-clear waters in the Maldives'; or the tranquillity of Mauritius. For those looking for some adventure, discover Thailand, the 'land of smiles', or the ancient heritage of Central Vietnam.

Coral Easter eggs in the Maldives

This Spring, Angsana Velaravu will witness a spectacle of nature, following the full moon: the spawning of coral eggs. Relatively unknown to science until 1982, this rare phenomena is worthy of anyone's bucket list. In 2016, this special event should occur from March 23 onwards, offering guests the chance of taking a very special Easter holiday where the eggs are not just made of chocolate. The resort is home to the Banyan Tree Maldives Marine Laboratory, dedicated to protecting the natural ecosystem of the Maldives through research and conservation. Guests can take part in marine biology lectures and on-going projects with the Marine Lab team. Rates at Angsana Velaravu start at USD 661 per room per night, breakfast included.

SPECIAL OFFER: Extend your romantic holiday by staying seven nights for the price of five with the 'Night on Us' offer at Angsana Velaravu. Book online or contact the resort on +960 676 0028 - reservations-velaravu@angsana.com.

Hang out in a Treehouse in Thailand

There's a festive feeling in the air at Angsana Laguna Phuket as Easter approaches. Considered one of the leading resorts in Phuket for families and groups of friends, its colourful Tree House Kids Club will keep the little ones entertained with Easter egg painting, fun Easter themed games and a magic show. While the kids are busy, parents can enjoy long walks along the white-sand beach of Bang Tao and relax at the XANA Beach Club pool - the coolest place on the island to enjoy a drink as the sun sets, accompanied by a DJ playing in the background. To make the stay even more enjoyable during Easter, a special seafood barbecue will be available for guests on Monday, Wednesday and Friday with entertainment in the form of a special Fire Dance; brunch will be served on Easter Sunday, along with music and activities for the family at XANA Beach Club. Rates at Angsana Laguna Phuket start at USD 239 per room per night, breakfast included.
